ISSUE FOUR

MAY 2005

Welcome to the Centenary Antique Centre monthly newsletter, where we will let you know what's new at the Centre, new dealers & interesting stock, coming events and anything else we think may be of interest to you.

CENTENARY DEALER PROFILE

Brian Dobinson

Shop 5

Brian is practically an institution here at Centenary, having been an integral part of the Centre for over a decade.

Brian discovered his love of collecting at about 10 years of age when his family were throwing out all the unwanted pieces that remained after the family owned cinemas, The Graeson in Swansea and the Astros in Merriwa closed down.

Brian has also been somewhat of a gypsy, having travelled to Europe many times where he added to his collection and living in both England and Germany for several years.

Brian began dealing in Antiques & Collectables through his friend Jan Grace at Mayfield West, selling a few pieces on consignment and then began his "tenure" with the team at Centenary in 1994.

Brian's shop here at the centre is filled with interesting treasures, with retro and deco being of special interest.

CENTENARY'S NEW DEALER

Rosemary Falkenberg has joined our team at Centenary with a great mix of furniture and collectables.

Trading as Shop 17, Rosemary has a huge collection of Wall Pockets as well as a large array of Pates and Diana Pottery.

If you're an egg cup collector then a visit to Rosemary's shop would be very rewarding.

THIS MONTH'S FEATURED COLLECTABLE

KITCHENALIA DISPLAY

Our large display shelves are currently a feast for the kitchenalia fan. A huge range of kitchen wares from yesteryear have been gathered together to make a gorgeous display of canisters, cooking implements, linen and furniture pieces.

*until next time,
Best Wishes from
Jo and all at Centenary*
